

The famous Wabeno Bowl was ready and sounding great music throughout downtown.

(Right) Vendor and entertainer made guitars out of cigar boxes.

Little Zofia from Verona Wisconsin had her first experience with a ukulele for playing music.

WAM Fest

A nice crowd gathered for the day's activities.

Teak Prigge of Manitowoc tries his artistic skills at one of the many work stations setup at the festival.

Leah LaMalfa played the rhythm for the children, and together they made music.

Mathew Dennison of Green Bay paints the tank located in the Wabeno square during one of the art competitions.

Sidewalk vendors were busy all day on Saturday.